Introduction

- [1] This penalty decision arises out of the Board’s substantive decision in which it found that the Respondent had failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervise, or has carried out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) (s 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act).
- [2] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies the Board must, under section 318 of the Act¹, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [3] In its substantive decision the Board set out its indicative position as regards penalty, costs and publication and invited the Respondent to make written submissions on those matters.
- [4] On 18 July 2017, the Board received the Respondent’s submissions. It has considered them and made the following decisions.

Penalty

- [5] The Board’s initial view was that a fine of $1,000 was the appropriate penalty for the disciplinary offence.
- [6] The Respondent has advised that his company has gone into liquidation and that he did not receive any money from the job that led to the inquiry. He has asked that the total amount of the fine and costs be set at $1,000.
- [7] The Board notes that it has already recognised that there were mitigating factors and as such it reduced the penalty accordingly. It does not consider that a further discount is warranted. As such the Board has decided to uphold its initial view.

Costs

- [8] The Board’s initial view was that $500 was appropriate. This was a reduced amount based on the fact that the hearing was held on the papers. No good reasons have been received as to why this amount should be further reduced. The Board therefore affirms its initial view.

Publication of Name

[9] The Board's initial view was there were no good reasons to further publish the matter. This remains the case.

Section 318 Order

[10] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to s 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.

Costs: Pursuant to s 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $500 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board.

Publication: The Registrar shall record the Board's action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with s 301(1)(iii) of the Act.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will not be action taken to publicly notify the Board's action, except for the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision.

[11] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

[12] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in s 330(2) of the Actⁱⁱ.
