Introduction

- [1] This penalty decision arises out of the Board’s substantive decision in which it found that the Respondent had committed the following disciplinary offences:
- (a) carried out or supervised building work or building inspection work in a negligent or incompetent manner (s 317(1)(b) of the Act);
 - (b) carried out or supervised building work or building inspection work that does not comply with a building consent (s 317(1)(d) of the Act); and
 - (c) has failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervise, or has carried out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) (s 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act).
- [2] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies the Board must, under section 318 of the Act¹, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [3] In its substantive decision the Board set out its indicative position as regards penalty, costs and publication and invited the Respondent to make written submissions on those matters.
- [4] On 7 February 2018, the Board received the Respondent’s submissions. It has considered them and made the following decisions.

Penalty

- [5] The Board’s initial view was that a fine of $2,500 was the appropriate penalty for the disciplinary offence. The reasons were set out in the substantive decision.
- [6] The submissions received set out various items of the decision that the Respondent disagrees with. In this respect the Respondent is reminded of his right to appeal as set out below. The Board’s call for submissions was in respect of matters pertaining to penalty, costs and publication and the Board’s consideration of the submissions is limited to the submissions that pertain to those matters.

- [7] The submissions received, in general, disagree with the Board's findings and the Respondent does not appear to have accepted any responsibility for his actions and conduct. Little in the way of actual mitigation has been presented and what has been submitted, such as financial losses have already been taken into account. Therefore, having considered the submissions received, the Board has decided to uphold its initial view.

Costs

- [8] The Board's initial view was that costs of $2,500 was appropriate. Having considered the submissions received the Board has decided to uphold its initial view.

Publication of Name

- [9] The Board's initial view was there were good reasons to further publish the matter. No submissions were received in respect of publication. The Board therefore confirms its decision with respect to publication.

Section 318 Order

- [10] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $2,500.

Costs: Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $2,500 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will be action taken to publicly notify the Board's action, in addition to the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision.

- [11] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

- [12] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in s 330(2) of the Actⁱⁱ.
